START

On both days the competition will begin at 10:00 o'clock.

RULES AND JUDGING

All matches will be judged according to the IJF regulations, but with the next exceptions.

JUDO GI

The white judo gi for the competitors is mandatory! The right to wear blue judo gi have only the second called out competitor on the tatami. The organizers will provide white and red belts for each match.

Under 12:

1. NOT ALLOWED

Besides the IJF regulations are also not allowed:

- 'Tomoe-nage' en 'hikomi-gaeshi' and all forms of these techniques;
- Ude-kansetsu-waza' (armlock techniques);
- 'Shime-waza' (strangulation techniques);
- 'Sankaku-waza' (threepoint control techniques);
- Executing a throw to the front on one or two knees. Both in tachi-waza as in ne-waza.
- After a good executed throw, intentionally falling on the other competitor;
- Grabbing around the neck further than the middle of the back (spine) of the other competitor. Koshi Guruma for example is allowed if the Tori grabs the jacket (Uwagi) of Uke in the neck. If Tori grabs further than the spine, it is not allowed.

2. PUNISHMENTS:

When the referee gives a punishment to a competitor, he shall every time clearly explain why or because of what the competitor gets the punishment. The extra punishments under point 1 are all rewarded with a "shi-do".

3. SAFETY

In all cases you can't find in the regulations, but where the option of the referee is that the safety of one or both competitors is in danger, will the referee stop the contest en take measures he considers appropriate. He is allowed to punish, if there is intention by one of the competitors to hurt the other competitor.

4. INJURIES:

All cases of injuries may be treated by that person who is assigned to treat injuries.

5. ORGANISATION:

These regulations are effective for those competitors who not have reached the age of 12 years at December 31. They are not allowed to compete in a competition for youth over 12 years old. Competitors who are 12 years old or older are not allowed to compete in a competition for youth under 12 years old.

Under 15:

1. EXCLUSION AFTER LOSS OF CONSCIOUSNESS IN SHIME-WAZA:

The competitor who loses consciousness will be excluded from the rest of the tournament. Be aware: this is not to be seen as hansoku-make.

2. FORBIDDEN TECHNIQUE:

Kansetsu-waza (armlock techniques). The first time a competitor performs an armlock, the referee says "mate". The second time a competitor performs an armlock he will get a "hansoku-make".

3. NOT ALLOWED:

"Necktie" = locking/entwinement directly on the neck, so that the neck is being bent or being put under tension, should directly being stopped. The referee will give "mate" and no punishment.
